2024-2025

Pictured on the front cover are two of our Crime Prevention/Community Education Specialists, Mary Browning and Mike Garofalo. Every year they typically present over 450 safety presentations in our area elementary schools. Presentation topics include home alone safety skills, personal and internet safety, suspect identification, and instruction on 911. Mary is pictured in Ms. Gargano's fourth grade class at Prairie Elementary School after presenting the first lesson of the Be Smart; Be Safe program. Mike (bottom right corner), is shown discussing a role play activity with Ravi Kumar and his daughter, Saisha Singh, at Peterson Elementary School.

Some dates may have changed since this calendar was printed. Please check with your school for the most up-to-date information.

Naperville

To the Citizens of Naperville,

It is my absolute pleasure to present the 38th edition of the Naperville Police Department Crime Prevention Calendar! This long-standing tradition is a staple in our city and one I am proud to share with you each and every year. This calendar is a true testament to the strong and lasting partnership between the community, the schools, and our police department.

While the calendar is a popular visual of this partnership, there are certain aspects of the Naperville Police Department's commitment to the schools and safety of our students that are not as well known. Did you know that NPD personnel have taught safety programming in Naperville's schools since 1987? Today, we have Community Education/Crime Prevention Specialists teaching safety lessons in all District 203, 204, and private elementary schools in our area. They help students learn about personal safety and how to be safe on the internet and when home alone. They instruct students in the use of 911, which can help reduce their anxiety if they ever have to call, and even address the power of observation in a lesson about how to describe a vehicle and an individual. Last year, these specialists taught over 470 safety lessons in the schools!

As you peruse the calendar this year, take notice of how many of these safety lessons become strong crime prevention strategies that students will carry with them throughout their lives; lessons such as stick with a buddy, don't share personal information online, call 911 in an emergency, and never open the door when you are home alone. Every year, we are amazed at the extraordinary creativity and outstanding artwork submitted by the students to bring their messages to life, and this year is no exception. Our department is proud that our partnership with the schools continues to keep even our youngest residents safe. I hope your family will take the time every month to reinforce the crime prevention messages within the calendar and build on the lessons we continue to teach in the schools.

Sincerely,
Jason R. Arres, Chief of Police

Thank You!

Dear Students & Parents,

As members of our community, it is essential that we work together to ensure the safety and well-being of ourselves and our fellow residents. By taking proactive measures and staying vigilant, we can help prevent crime and create a secure environment for all.

The crime prevention calendar provides our residents with important safety tips. By following these tips, we can work together to build a safer and more secure community for everyone. Let's look out for each other and take the necessary steps to protect ourselves and our neighbors. Together, we can make a difference in ensuring the safety and well-being of our community.

The crime prevention calendar has been a Naperville tradition since 1987. The strong safety messages and color artwork are a collaboration with the Naperville Police Department and the following partners: Naperville Community Unit School District 203, Indian Prairie School District 204, Naperville Crime Stoppers, All Saints Catholic Academy, Bethany Lutheran School, Calvary Christian School, Ss. Peter and Paul Catholic School and St. Raphael School.

Allow the calendar to help guide your family's discussions on how you can actively participate in public safety every day. These crucial discussions at the family level will no doubt enhance the safety of your family, your home, your neighborhood, and Naperville as a whole.

Stay safe and vigilant,

Sincerely,

Mayor Scott A. Wehri
